

DASSIA, CORFU

At a seaside location in Dassia Bay in Corfu, this transcendental villa is the epitome of luxury. As a perfect puzzle, rectangular and square cubic volumes, seemingly positioned over each other, create a perspective formation that stands out from the mass and excites with its uniqueness and style.

Comfortably resting on a 4,100 m<sup>2</sup> plot of land, the property extends over 450 m<sup>2</sup> of living surface. The villa comprises in total seven bedrooms and bathrooms. Minimalism, vibrant colors and a modern stylistic approach characterize to the absolute degree the character and the rationale governing the interior decoration.

Outdoors, the vast garden surrounding the property provides with a breath of much needed freshness while the large swimming pool is perfect for the lazy summer afternoons. Further to all this, the villa has quick access to the sandy beach of Dassia.
