

Flying private shouldn't mean being taken for a ride

Explore the unprecedented benefits of the world's only private aviation program offering a proprietary fleet of private aircraft, effectively with no out of pocket expense.

Owners of O's luxury residences are the beneficiaries of a unique private aviation platform with its own exclusive fleet of mid, super-mid and light jets, to fly owners for up to forty hours a year at less than half the traditional cost of private jet travel, and with many of those hours entirely without any cost at all.
